

Department of European Ethnology, Humboldt-University Berlin
Collaborative Research Center SFB 640, "Changing Representations of Social Orders",
B-4 Project „Identity Politics in the South Caucasus“, Institute City Lab

Workshop

URBAN SPACES AFTER SOCIALISM. ETHNOGRAPHIES OF PUBLIC PLACES

Wednesday 24th February 2010, Department of European Ethnology, Mohrenstr. 40/ 41, R. 212

Program

- 10.00-10.15 Introduction by Tsypylma Darieva and Madlen Pilz
- 10.15-10.45 Anna Karpenko (Kant University, Kaliningrad; Humboldt-University, Berlin)
Historical heritage in the future of post-socialist cities. Kaliningrad and Berlin
- 10.45-11.15 Joachim Otto Habeck (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle)
Cultural spaces – empty places? The Dom Kultury in rural and urban Russia
- 11.15-11.45 Madlen Pilz (Humboldt-University, Berlin)
Social Life of Rustaveli – a promenade in Tbilisi
- 11.45-12.15 Panel discussions
- Lunch break
- 1.00- 1.30 Natalia Kosmarskaya (Institute for Oriental Studies, Moscow)
City as a contested space: conceptualizing relations between migrants and old residents in post-Soviet Bishkek
- 1.30-2.00 Tsypylma Darieva (Humboldt-University, Berlin)
Making place: A sea promenade between centre and periphery in Baku
- 2.00-2.30 Lale Yalcin-Heckmann (MPI for Social Anthropology, Halle)
Studying small town in Azerbaijan: public space, gender and market economy
- 2.30-3.30 Panel and final discussions

Discussants: Lale Yalcin-Heckmann (MPI for Social Anthropology), Ketevan Khutsishvili (Javakheshvili Tbilisi State University), Oleg Pachenkov (Centre for Independent Social Research, St.Petersburg), Alexa Färber (Humboldt-University, Berlin)